

ESTEBAN GARCÍA-MIRALLES

Institute for Fiscal Studies
Department of Economics
7 Ridgmount St
WC1E 7AE London, UK

Phone: +44 0776 9410 928
Email: esteban.miralles@ifs.org.uk
Web: [sites.google.com/view/
esteban-garcia-miralles](https://sites.google.com/view/esteban-garcia-miralles)

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

Post-Doctoral Fellow, Institute for Fiscal Studies	2021 - present
Post-Doctoral Researcher, University of Copenhagen	Spring 2021
Research Assistant, Bank of Spain	2016 - 2018

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Economics, University of Copenhagen	2018 - 2021
Visiting PhD, University of California San Diego	Fall 2019
M.Sc., Economics, University of Copenhagen	2013 - 2015
B.Sc., Economics, Universidad Complutense de Madrid	2009 - 2013

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Primary: Applied Microeconomics, Labor Economics, Public Economics
Secondary: Economics of Aging, Household Finance, Health Economics

PUBLICATIONS

“The Crucial Role of Social Welfare Criteria and Individual Heterogeneity for Optimal Inheritance Taxation”.
The B.E. Journal of Economic Analysis & Policy, 2020, 20(2).
Winner of Alexandre Pedrós Prize. Finalist of AldE Young Researchers’ Prize.
Previous versions: Masters’ thesis (2015) and Bank of Spain Working Paper (2017)

“The Spanish Personal Income Tax: Facts and Parametric Estimates”, with Nezih Guner and Roberto Ramos.
SERIEs - Journal of the Spanish Economic Association, 2019, 10 (439–477).

WORKING PAPERS

“Joint Retirement of Couples: Evidence from Discontinuities in Denmark”, with Jonathan M. Leganza

“Public Pensions and Private Savings”, with Jonathan Leganza

“Are Children’s Socio-Emotional Skills Shaped by Parental Health Shocks?”, with Miriam Gensowski.
R&R: Journal of Human Resources

WORK IN PROGRESS

“Tax Code Spillovers: Evidence from Retirement Savings Decisions in Denmark”, with Jonathan M. Leganza

“Medical Innovations, Life Expectancy, and Socio-Economic Behaviors”, with M. Erjnæs, M. Gørtz, and P. Lundborg

POLICY-ORIENTED PUBLICATIONS

“Microsimulation Tools for the Evaluation of Fiscal Policies at Banco de España”, with O. Bover, J.M. Casado, J.M. Labeaga and R. Ramos.

Banco de España Occasional Paper. n.1707. 2017.

SELECTED HONORS AND AWARDS

Grants for research visit to UCSD (€7,500)	2019
Alexandre Pedrós Prize: best paper by researchers under age 40 presented at the XXIV Spanish Meeting of Public Economics	2017
Rafael del Pino - IEF grant to attend Georgia State University Summer School	2016
Fundación Ramón Areces postgraduate scholarship (€35,000)	2013
Fundación La Caixa postgraduate scholarship (declined)	2013

TEACHING

University of Copenhagen

Advanced Microeconometrics (TA, graduate level)	Spring 2018
Econometrics II (TA, undergraduate level)	Spring 2015
Econometrics II (TA, undergraduate level)	Fall 2014

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Referee Service

Journal of Human Resources, Mathematical Social Sciences, Empirical Economics, Canadian Journal of Economics, Hacienda Pública Española/Review of Public Economics

AFFILIATIONS

CEBI, Center for Economic Behavior and Inequality	2017-
---	-------

SKILLS AND LANGUAGES

Stata, Matlab, L^AT_EX
Design and implementation of online surveys using Qualtrics and Strålfors
Spanish (native), English (fluent)

REFERENCES

Mette Gørtz, University of Copenhagen, mette.gortz@econ.ku.dk
Miriam Gensowski, Rockwool Foundation, mig@rff.dk
Gordon B. Dahl, University of California, San Diego, gdahl@ucsd.edu
Itzik Fadlon, University of California, San Diego, fadlon@ucsd.edu