

ESTEBAN GARCÍA-MIRALLES

August 2022

Banco de España
DG Economics, Statistics and Research
Alcalá 48, 28014 Madrid, Spain

Email: esteban.garcia.miralles@bde.es
Website: [sites.google.com/view/
esteban-garcia-miralles](https://sites.google.com/view/esteban-garcia-miralles)

EMPLOYMENT

---

Economist, Banco de España , Sectoral Analysis Division	2022 –
Post-Doctoral Fellow, Institute for Fiscal Studies , London	2021 – 2022
Research Assistant, Banco de España , Microeconomic Studies Division	2016 – 2018

EDUCATION

---

Ph.D., Economics, University of Copenhagen	2018 – 2021
Visiting PhD, University of California San Diego	Fall 2019
M.Sc., Economics, University of Copenhagen	2013 – 2015
B.Sc., Economics, Universidad Complutense de Madrid	2009 – 2013

PUBLICATIONS

---

“The Crucial Role of Social Welfare Criteria and Individual Heterogeneity for Optimal Inheritance Taxation”.
The B.E. Journal of Economic Analysis & Policy, 2020, 20(2).
Winner of Alexandre Pedrós Prize. Finalist of AIdE Young Researchers’ Prize
Previous versions: Masters’ thesis (2015) and Bank of Spain Working Paper (2017)

“The Spanish Personal Income Tax: Facts and Parametric Estimates”, with Nezih Guner and Roberto Ramos.
SERIEs - Journal of the Spanish Economic Association, 2019, 10(3), 439–477.

WORKING PAPERS

---

“Joint Retirement of Couples: Evidence from Discontinuities in Denmark”, with Jonathan Leganza
R&R: *Journal of Public Economics

“Public Pensions and Private Savings”, with Jonathan Leganza
R&R: *American Economic Journal: Economic Policy

“Are Children’s Socio-Emotional Skills Shaped by Parental Health Shocks?”, with Miriam Gensowski
Conditionally accepted: *Journal of Human Resources

“When Death was Postponed: The Effect of HIV Medication on Work and Marriage”, with M. Erjnæs, M. Gørtz, and P. Lundborg

WORK IN PROGRESS

---

“Tax Code Spillovers: Evidence from Retirement Savings Decisions in Denmark”, with Jonathan Leganza

“Pension Wealth Liquidity and Consumption: Evidence from the U.K.”

POLICY-ORIENTED PUBLICATIONS

---

“Microsimulation Tools for the Evaluation of Fiscal Policies at Banco de España”, with O. Bover, J.M. Casado, J.M. Labeaga and R. Ramos.

Banco de España Occasional Paper. n.1707. 2017.

SELECTED HONORS AND AWARDS

---

Diverse grants for research visit to UCSD	2019
Alexandre Pedrós Prize: best paper from authors under age 40 presented at the XXIV Spanish Meeting of Public Economics	2017
Rafael del Pino - IEF grant to attend Georgia State University Summer School	2016
Fundación Ramón Areces postgraduate scholarship	2013
Fundación La Caixa postgraduate scholarship (declined)	2013

TEACHING

---

University of Copenhagen

Advanced Microeconometrics (TA, graduate level)	Spring 2018
Econometrics II (TA, undergraduate level)	Spring 2015
Econometrics II (TA, undergraduate level)	Fall 2014

REFeree SERVICE

---

American Economic Journal: Applied Economics, Journal of Human Resources, Mathematical Social Sciences, Empirical Economics, Canadian Journal of Economics, Hacienda Pública Española/Review of Public Economics

AFFILIATIONS

---

CEBI, Center for Economic Behavior and Inequality

SKILLS AND LANGUAGES

---

Stata, Matlab, L<sup>A</sup>T<sub>E</sub>X

Design and implementation of online surveys using Qualtrics and Strålfors

Spanish (native), English (fluent)

REFERENCES

---

Mette Gørtz, University of Copenhagen, mette.gortz@econ.ku.dk

Miriam Gensowski, Rockwool Foundation, mig@rff.dk

Gordon B. Dahl, University of California, San Diego, gdahl@ucsd.edu

Itzik Fadlon, University of California, San Diego, fadlon@ucsd.edu